

Melville Castle Wedding Experience

Set in an idyllic country estate on the outskirts of Edinburgh, Melville Castle is a unique and enchanting location for wedding receptions and civil partnerships. The Castle has played host to weddings of all shapes and sizes from the grandest of society weddings to smaller and more intimate affairs. Dating back to 1786, Melville Castle is a lovingly and sympathetically restored castellated mansion with interiors that fuse a modern eclecticism with a classical sensibility. Nestled within 54 acres of parkland and woodland on the banks of the River North Esk, it provides a most romantic backdrop for photographs.

The opulent State Rooms provide the perfect setting for arrival drinks, canapés and Champagne receptions. The Castle is also licensed for civil ceremonies making Melville the perfect place to say 'I do' before dancing into the evening then sinking into the sumptuous comfort of our classically furnished rooms and suites.

Should you choose Melville Castle for your special day and celebrations, you will be spoilt for choice with an array of beautifully adorned private rooms. Choose from The Ballroom, a magnificent room with high ceilings and sweeping views of the parkland, river and woodland which is perfect for a ceremony of up to 100 guests. The Viscount Room, a stunning space with gilded ceiling and traditional décor which is perfect for your wedding breakfast. Finally, if you are looking to hold a larger, more lavish wedding then the pavilion marquee situated on the east lawn provides the perfect location for larger ceremonies, wedding breakfasts and evening receptions. The bright south facing public rooms are perfect for your guests to mingle before the wedding breakfast and the grounds provide a picturesque backdrop for photographs. As newlyweds, you can make your grand entrance down the sweeping feature staircase to your reception and enjoy the congratulations from your friends and family.

Mouth-watering menus have been written to enhance your celebrations. Formal, informal, buffet, canapés – if you have an idea, we will produce a menu catered to your exact requirements. You may also wish to enjoy an informal private dinner with family and close friends on the evening prior to your big day. Or why not gather those closest to you for a post celebratory brunch or lunch?

Whatever your requirements, Melville Castle has all the ingredients to create a truly memorable occasion.

We look forward to welcoming you to the Castle and turning your dream into a reality.
